The referee(s) may only change a decision on realising that it is incorrect or, at their discretion, on the advice of an assistant referee (should they be present), provided that they have not restarted play or terminated the match.

The decisions of the referee prevail over those of the second referee if both signal an infringement and there is disagreement between them. A player may only play in an age group higher than their registered age group, if they meet the minimum age requirement as detailed above AND if a consent form has been completed by their parent/guardian and submitted and approved by Wagga Futsal. NO EXCEPTIONS

If a team fails to adhere to the minimum and maximum age groups this may arise in the imposition of a points penalty for the games in which a player has played. The penalty is at the absolute sole discretion of Wagga Futsal.

A nominated team may have a maximum of 3 players who have played at State Representative Level in the past 24 months, unless those players played with the nominated team in the previous season of Futsal, as approved by Football NSW. Registration details for all players needs to have been approved by Wagga Futsal prior to the commencement of the regular competition.

The intentions of these restrictions are to:

- a. better facilitate the participation of non-representative players into the competition
- b. Spread the representative players across more domestic teams
- c. Make the competition more even.

7.7 Any team with 4 (four) or more STATE representative players, who have played with the same team for at least two (2) seasons, may be asked to play up at least one (1) age group, the final decision remains with the competition organiser in the interests of providing a fair and equitable competition

9.3.2 Lodging of fraudulent registration details.

9.3.3 A team's or individual's un-financial status with the association.

9.3.4 A team's or individual's playing status – i.e. outstanding suspensions etc.

10. Conduct of games

10.1 Kick-off

A kick-off is a way of starting or restarting play:

- at the start of the match
- after a goal has been scored
- at the start of the second half of the match
- at the start of each period of extra time, where applicable.

10.1.1 Kick-off Procedure

- All players must be in their own half of the pitch
- The opponents of the team taking the kick-off are at least 3 m from the ball until it is in play
- The ball must be stationary on the centre mark and kick off is complete when the ball clearly moves.
- The referee gives a signal
- The ball is in play when it is kicked and moves forward or backwards. After a team scores a goal, provided that the period has not ended, the kick-off is taken by the other team.
- A goal may be scored directly against the opponents from the kick-off, if the ball directly enters the kicker's goal, a corner kick is awarded to the opponents

10.2 Ball out of play

The ball is out of play when:

- it has wholly crossed the goal line or touch line whether on the ground or in the air
- play has been stopped by the referees
- it hits the ceiling whilst the ball is in play, this results in an indirect free kick to the team who did not strike the ball last

10.3.1 Ball in play

The ball is in play at all other times, including when:

- it rebounds off a goalpost or crossbar and remains on the pitch
- it rebounds off the referees when they are on the pitch.
- The minimum height of ceilings is 4m and shall be stipulated in the competition rules. If the ball hits the ceiling while in play, the game is restarted with a kick-in taken by the opponents of the team that last touched the ball. The kick-in is taken from the point on the touch line nearest to the place on the ground above which the ball hit the ceiling.

10.3.2 Restart of play after fouls and misconduct

'If the ball is out of play, play is restarted according to the previous decision.'

When the ball is in play:

'If an offence is committed off the pitch by a player against a player, substitute or team official of his/her own team, play is restarted with an indirect free kick on the boundary line closest to where the offence occurred.'

If a player makes contact with the ball with an object (a boot, shinguard, etc.) held in the hand, play is restarted with a direct free kick (or penalty kick).'

10.3.3 The Kick In

A kick-in is awarded to the opponents of the player who last touched the ball when the whole of the ball passes over the touchline on the floor or in the air, or when the ball hits the ceiling while in play.

A goal cannot be scored directly from a kick-in:

- If the ball enters the opponents' goal, a goal clearance is awarded .
- If the ball enters the kicker's goal, a corner kick is awarded.'

Procedure

At the moment of delivering the ball:

- the ball must be stationary on the touchline at the point where it left the pitch or the nearest point to where it touched the ceiling;
- all opponents must stand at least 3m from the point on the touchline where the kick-in is to be taken.

The ball is in play when it is kicked and clearly moves.

The ball must be put into play within four seconds of the team being ready to put the ball into play or the referee signalling that the team is ready to put it into play.

If the kick-in is taken and then, after it has been in play, the ball goes off the pitch over the same touchline where it was taken without touching any other player, it is retaken by the opposing team from the same location where the original kick-in was taken.

If a player, while correctly taking a kick-in, deliberately kicks the ball at an opponent in order to play the ball again but not in a careless or reckless manner or using excessive force, the referees allow play to continue.

The kicker must not touch the ball again until it has touched another player.

10.3.4 Accumulated Fouls

Are those sanction by a direct free kick

- The first five fouls sanctioned by a direct free kick, in each half as recorded
- For these first 5 fouls a defensive wall may be formed by the opposing team to defend the kick.
- Beginning with the sixth foul the players of the opposing team may not form a wall to defend the kick.
- The kick is taken from the second penalty mark unless the foul occurred beyond the mark when the non-offending team has the option to take the kick where the foul occurred or from the second penalty mark of 10 meters
- The player taking the kick must be identified and must kick with the intention of scoring.
- The ball cannot be passed to another player.
- The goalkeeper must remain in his penalty area and be 5 meters from the ball.
- All other players must remain behind an imaginary line level with the ball and parallel with the goal line.
- They must be five meters from the ball and may not obstruct the player taking the kick.

10.3.5 The Penalty Kick

When the ball is kicked, the defending goalkeeper must have at least part of one foot touching, or in line with, the goal line.

The ball is in play when it is kicked forwards and clearly moves.'

An opponent who obstructs the kicker from moving towards the ball when a penalty kick is going to be taken must be cautioned, even if the offender was respecting the 5m minimum distance.

10.4. Tackling

10.4.1 In no circumstances are players allowed to tackle from behind. Even if the tackle is seen as a clean possession a direct free kick will be awarded to the opposition.

10.4.2 Under no circumstances are players allowed to slide tackle.

A slide tackle will result in an instant card (yellow or red) at the referee's discretion. The goalkeeper is allowed to slide along the ground, so long as the slide is within the goal area. They are however to do this in a safe manner e.g. not to slide feet first, slide from behind, or play in a dangerous manner. The referee will determine what is deemed as safe play.

10.4.3 A player may, if no opponents are nearby, slide to intercept or direct the ball. No foul results.

FIFA RULE NUMBER 12 states that if a player slides in an attempt to play the ball while an opponent is playing it or is about to play it (sliding tackle), except for the goalkeeper in his own penalty area, provided that he does not endanger the safety of an opponent, he commits a foul.

10.5 Goalkeepers

10.5.1 The goalkeeper CAN throw the ball to the halfway line on the pitch as long as they do so from their own goal area and within the four (4) seconds allotted for restarts. A restart will commence with the referee blowing their whistle.

If a goalkeeper throws the ball over halfway then an indirect free kick shall be given to the opposition team at the point where the ball crossed the halfway line.

10.5.1.2 The Goal Clearance

Procedure

- The ball is thrown or released from any point within the penalty area by the goalkeeper of the defending team.
- The ball is in play when it is thrown or released and clearly moves.
- The ball must be put into play within four seconds of the team being ready to put the ball into play or the referee signalling that the team is ready to put it into play. Opponents must be outside the penalty area until the ball is in play.'

10.5.2. Goalkeepers may throw the ball from the marked goal area (D), to restart from a goal clearance. If they have saved the ball in general play at which time they can also drop or punt kick in accordance with rule 10.5.1 above.

10.5.3. The goalkeeper has a 4 second time limit to release the ball unless they are in the opposing half of the pitch, at which they have unlimited time.

10.5.4 Goalkeepers are NOT allowed to pick up a pass from any of their team mates (back pass).

10.5.5. Once a goalkeeper has released the ball from their possession, they may not receive it back unless it has been over the half way line or been touched by an opposing player (2 touch rule).

10.5.6 In Under 8 Futsal attackers must retreat behind the white line into the middle third of the pitch and must not enter their attacking third until the defending team has had a minimum of 4 touches inside the defensive third. Should the defending team play the ball out of the defensive third then that ball in effect is live and can be played by either team.

10.5.6 Handling the ball

Except for goalkeepers in their penalty area, it is an offence if a player:

- deliberately touches the ball with his/her hand or arm, including moving his/her hand or arm towards the ball;
- gains possession/control of the ball after it has touched his/her hand or arm and then:
 - scores in the opponents' goal;
 - creates a goalscoring opportunity.

Except for goalkeepers in their penalty area, it is usually an offence if a player:

- touches the ball with his/her hand or arm when:
 - the hand or arm has made his/her body unnaturally bigger;
 - the hand or arm is above or beyond his/her shoulder level (unless the player deliberately plays the ball with another part of the body and it then touches his/her hand or arm).

The above offences apply even if the ball touches a player's hand or arm directly from the head or body (including the foot) of another player who is close.

Except for the above offences, it is not usually an offence if the ball touches a player's hand or arm:

- directly from the player's own head or body (including the foot).
- directly from the head or body (including the foot) of another player who is close.
- if the hand or arm is close to the body and does not make the body unnaturally bigger.
- when a player falls and the hand or arm is between the body and the ground to support the body, but not extended laterally or vertically away from the body.

The goalkeeper has the same restrictions on handling the ball as any other player outside the penalty area. If the goalkeeper handles the ball inside his/her penalty area when not permitted to do so, an indirect free kick is awarded but there is no disciplinary sanction.'

10.5.7 Denying a goal or an obvious goalscoring opportunity (DOGSO)

'Where a player denies the opposing team a goal or an obvious goalscoring opportunity by a handball offence, the player is sent off wherever the offence occurs.

Where a player commits an offence against an opponent within his/her own penalty area which denies the opponent an obvious goalscoring opportunity and the referees award a penalty kick, the offender is cautioned if the offence was an attempt to play the ball; in all other circumstances (e.g. holding, pulling, pushing, no possibility to play the ball, etc.), the offending player must be sent off.

A player, sent-off player, substitute or team official who enters the pitch without the required permission from one of the referees or in violation of the substitution procedure and interferes with play, committing an offence by denying the opposing team a goal or an obvious goalscoring opportunity, is guilty of a sending-off offence.

The following must be considered when determining whether it is a DOGSO situation:

- the distance between the offence and the goal
- the general direction of the play
- the likelihood of keeping or gaining control of the ball
- the location and number of defending outfield players, as well as the goalkeeper
- whether or not the goal is "unguarded"

If a goalkeeper is just in front of his/her own goal to guard it, it is considered that no DOGSO offence can be committed, even if the situation meets the other criteria for DOGSO.

If a goalkeeper commits an offence which denies the opposing team an obvious goalscoring opportunity or denies the opposing team a goal or an obvious goalscoring opportunity by handling the ball outside the penalty area when his/her goal is unguarded or only guarded by an outfield defending-team player behind the goalkeeper, the goalkeeper is considered guilty of a DOGSO offence.

If the number of attacking-team players is greater than the number of defending-team players (except the goalkeeper) guarding the goal, this is considered to be a DOGSO situation.'

10.6 Game duration

10.6.1 Game duration for junior competitions shall be as follows

Under 8/10/12 - will consist of 2 X 13-minute halves, run off the clock, with a 1-minute timed half time break.

Under 14/16 – will consist of 2 X 15-minute halves, run off the clock, with a 1-minute timed half time break.

THERE WILL BE NO TIME ADDED ON AT THE END OF EITHER HALF, UNLESS A SERIOUS INJURY OCCURS AND THIS IS AT THE DISCRETION OF THE REFEREE IN CHARGE.

10.6.1.2 Game Duration for all age groups from Under 19s upwards will consist of 2 X 20-minute halves, run off the clock, with a 3-minute half time break

10.6.2 Players are entitled to an interval at half-time. The half-time interval must not exceed 1 minute in Junior Competitions (under 16 down) and 3-minutes in all other competitions. Competition rules must state the duration of the half-time interval. The duration of the half-time interval may be altered only with the consent of the referee.

10.6.3 Time wasting as determined by the referee will result in a yellow card and a free kick will be given.

10.6.4 The timekeeper signals the end of each period (and the extra-time periods) with an acoustic signal.

- The period finishes when the acoustic signal sounds, even if the referees do not signal the end by blowing their whistle.
- If a direct free kick beginning with the sixth accumulated foul or a penalty kick is awarded when a period is about to end, the period will be considered to have ended once the direct free kick or penalty kick has been completed. Either kick is considered completed when, after the ball is in play, one of the following occurs:
 - the ball stops moving or goes out of play.
 - the ball is played by any player (including the kicker) other than the defending goalkeeper.
 - the referees stop play for an offence by the kicker or the kicker's team.
- A goal scored according to Law 10.1 but after the end of the period, as indicated by the timekeeper with the acoustic signal, will only be allowed in the above situations.

Periods of play will not be extended in any other case.

10.6.5 DRINKS BREAKS are at the discretion of the referee and will only be permitted when the ambient temperature is higher than 32 degrees indoors.

11.1 At the completion of the competition round robin matches, the point's table placement of teams will be determined by the number of points accrued in playing those matches. The team with the highest number of points will be placed first. The remaining teams will be placed according to their point's accrual with the next highest number being placed second and so on.

11.2 In the event that two teams are equal on points then the following elimination process shall apply to determine the respective placements:

11.2.1 The team with the higher goal difference would be placed as the higher of the two. If there remains a tied outcome then;

11.2.2 The team with the highest goals for would be the higher of the two. If there remains a tied outcome, then;

11.2.3 The result of the match or aggregate result in the matches played would place the winner as the higher of the two. If their match was drawn or this was a tie, then;

11.2.4 A coin is tossed to determine the position.

12. Match sheets

All match sheets will be provided by Wagga Futsal

12.1 It is the responsibility of the respective teams to ensure that match sheets are correct and include all player's names and shirt numbers prior to the start of the game.

12.3 Should a player take the pitch that is not listed on the match card prior to the commencement of the game will result in a loss of one goal to the opposition.

12.4 The referee may refuse to let a team take the pitch until its part of the match sheet has been checked by a team official to ensure correct names and numbers for that team.

12.5 A team's match sheet must be shown to the captain or manager of the opposing team at his or her request.

FIFA LAWS OF THE GAME EXTRACT ON THE PITCH.

- Pitch surface Matches should be played on flat, smooth and non-abrasive surfaces, preferably made of wood or artificial material, according to the rules of the competition.
- Concrete or tarmac should be avoided.
- Artificial turf pitches are permitted in exceptional cases and only for domestic competitions.

Pitch markings

- The pitch must be rectangular and marked with lines. These lines belong to the areas of which they are boundaries and must be clearly distinguishable from the colour of the pitch.
- The two longer boundary lines are called touch lines. The two shorter lines are called goal lines.
- The pitch is divided into two halves by a halfway line, which joins the midpoints of the two touch lines.
- The centre mark is indicated at the midpoint of the halfway line. A circle with a radius of 3m is the preferred marking around it, however this is dependent on the existing markings present.
- A mark must be drawn outside the pitch, 5m from the corner arc and at right angles to the goal line, to ensure that defending players retreat this distance when a corner kick is being taken. The width of this mark is 8cm.
- Two additional marks, each at a distance of 5m to the left and the right of the second penalty mark, must be made on the pitch to indicate the minimum distance to be retreated when a kick is being taken from the second penalty mark. The width of this mark is 8cm.

The penalty area

- Within each penalty area, a penalty mark is made 6m from the midpoint between the goalposts and equidistant to them.
- A second mark is made 10m from the midpoint between the goalposts and equidistant to them.

Goals

- A goal must be placed on the centre of each goal line.
- A goal consists of two upright posts equidistant from the corners and joined at the top by a horizontal crossbar. The goalposts and crossbar must be made of wood, metal or other approved material. They must be square, rectangular, round or elliptical in shape and must not be dangerous to players.
- The distance (inside measurement) between the posts is 3m and the distance from the lower edge of the crossbar to the ground is 2m.
- Both goalposts and the crossbar have the same width and depth, 8cm. The nets must be made of hemp, jute or nylon or other approved material and are attached to the back of the goalposts and the crossbar with a suitable means of support. They must be properly supported and must not interfere with the goalkeeper.
- The goalposts and crossbars must be of a different colour from the pitch.
- The goals must have a stabilising system that prevents them from overturning. Portable goals may only be used if they satisfy this requirement.

The substitution zones

- The substitution zones are the areas on the touch line in front of the team benches, the purpose of which is described in Law 3 of FIFA Futsal Laws Of The Game.
- They are situated in front of the technical area and are ideally 5m in length, local centres may have different sizes.
- They are marked at each end with a line 40cm in length, 20cm of which is drawn on the pitch and 20cm off the pitch, and 8cm wide
- The area in front of the timekeeper's table 5m to either side of the halfway line is kept clear
- A team's substitution zone is situated in the half of the pitch defended by said team and changes in the second half of the match and periods of extra time, if any occur.
